Dear Mr. Corsi:

The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence is conducting a bipartisan inquiry into Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. elections. As part of our efforts, the Committee requests that you produce and preserve certain documents and records and that you make yourself available for a closed interview with bipartisan Committee staff at an agreeable time.

Specifically, the Committee requests that you provide the below documents and records to the Committee by the close of business on December 28, 2018. The documents and records requested include all documents and records, including hard copies or electronically stored information (including, but not limited to, emails, text messages, direct messages, calendar appointments, memoranda, notes, phone logs, contact information, or other recorded information), covering the period June 16, 2015, to the present, related to:

1. Communications, including through intermediaries, with or about:
 - a. DCLeaks, including any of its affiliated online personas.
 - b. Guccifer 2.0, including any of its affiliated online personas.
 - c. WikiLeaks, including any of its employees, representatives, associates, or online personas.
 - d. Roger Stone.
 - e. Peter W. Smith.
 - f. Charles Johnson.
 - g. The Government of Ecuador, including any official or representative thereof.
 - h. Ted Malloch.
 - i. Randy Credico.
 - j. Steve Bannon.
 - k. Alex Jones.
 - l. Henry Greenberg (a/k/a "Henry Oknyansky").
2. Communications between you and any employee, representative, or associate of the Donald J. Trump for President campaign or transition team related to Russia.

COMMITTEE SENSITIVE

3. Communications regarding any attempts to search for information that may have been, or was purported to have been, stolen or compromised and that was related in any way to the 2016 U.S. election.
4. Communications that in any way relate to derogatory information about Hillary Clinton, including, but not limited to, Hillary Clinton's emails, Hillary Clinton's health or potential illness, the Clinton Foundation, the Hillary Clinton for President or Hillary for America 2016 U.S. presidential campaigns, the Democratic National Committee, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, Mr. John Podesta, and/or Mr. Tony Podesta.
5. Communications related to Russian attempts to influence the 2016 U.S. Presidential election, Russian-backed supported to spread or disseminate information on social media, or compromising material on any 2016 U.S. presidential candidate or campaign.
6. Communications about the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence's (SSCI) ongoing investigation, excluding those communications (a) directly with any employee of SSCI, or (b) those with your attorneys.

In addition to the above requests, please provide any documents or records previously obtained by, or produced to, the Special Counsel's Office or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In order to maintain a full and complete record of responsive documents, the Committee also requests that you preserve:

1. All documents produced in response to the Committee's request as described above; including responsive documents received or created after your initial production of documents to the Committee;
2. If it is the routine practice to destroy or otherwise alter such documents, either:
 - a. Put an immediate halt to such practices; or,
 - b. Arrange for the preservation of complete and accurate duplicates or copies of such documents, suitable for production if requested; and,
3. All documents relating to or produced in response to:
 - a. Any notice of administrative, civil, or criminal legal action;
 - b. Any subpoena, search warrant, seizure warrant, summons, or other legal writ, notice, or order or request for information, property, or material;
 - c. Any request for information made to or by a third party (including but not limited to any government agency or private party); related to
 - d. Russian actions targeting the 2016 U.S. elections as described above.

To the extent that any of these documents may be privileged, please provide a detailed privilege log prior to the deadline.
